Frequently asked questions

What time should I arrive?

We recommend you arrive promptly for registration; this will give you time to check-in, register, collect your gown, and have your professional photographs taken and take your seats.

What happens when I arrive?

Make your way to the registration area, this will be situated just inside the main entrance. There will be an attended cloakroom next to the registration area where you can leave your belongings. The venue is all on one level, if you do require any special assistance, please let a member of the Graduation Team know as soon as possible and we will be happy to assist. Toilets are available on the ground floor.

Registration

The registration desk will be situated just inside the entrance at the Spreespeicher. Please have your e-ticket and ID available on arrival. All graduates and guests will need to register at the registration desk. All guests, including children will require their own ticket. As we are at maximum capacity there will be no extra guest tickets available on the day.

Academic Dress

Once you and your guests have registered you should proceed to collect your Academic Dress. Graduation Attire will have your pre-ordered gown ready for collection in the Ultimo room.

Pre-paid Official Photography

If you have pre-ordered official photography, this will take place in the Ultimo Room after you have collected your Academic Dress. If you have not pre-ordered your professional photography by Graduation Attire, you may be able to purchase a package on the day, subject to availability.

Seating

All graduates and guests are asked to take their seats by 3:55pm at the latest. All seating is allocated, please ensure that you sit in your correct seat as shown on your own e-ticket. Once seated please remain in your seat for the duration of the ceremony. Graduates or guests will not be able to enter the room once the ceremony has started.

What if I am late for the ceremony?

Please make sure you are on time as you may not be able to graduate if you arrive late.

Frequently asked questions

When will I receive my tickets?

Your e-tickets will be sent, by email, approximately 7 days before your ceremony. Please ensure your guests have a copy of their own tickets, we can accept electronic or printed versions of the e-tickets. If you have not received your e-ticket by Wednesday 23rd April 2025, or you have any queries regarding your tickets, please contact graduation@arden.ac.uk

What happens during the ceremony?

Ushers will guide you to your allocated seat upon entry to the room. Staff will guide graduates out of their seats and to the stage when it is your turn to graduate. After you have crossed the stage an usher will direct you back to your seat. No food or drink will be allowed in the ceremony room.

Please do not change seats at any point or your name will not be announced.

What happens at the alumni reception?

Following the ceremony, everyone is invited to attend the alumni reception in the Medio room, which is connected to the ceremony room. Here, you can enjoy a complimentary drink whilst celebrating with your fellow graduates, guests, and Arden academics. There will be a merchandise stand where you will be able to purchase a variety of Arden University branded items – we will only be able to accept cash payments on the day. There will also be a careers stand, where you will be able to chat to one of our experienced career's team members.

Where do I return my gown?

Drop off points for your academic robes will be in the Medio room and must be returned no later than 5:40pm.

We hope you have a wonderful graduation and we look forward to celebrating with you on the day!
