Welcome

On behalf of everyone here at Arden University, congratulations on your success. It is a great honour to welcome you and your supporters to Central Hall Westminster to celebrate your success today.

Professor Carl Lygo
Vice-Chancellor and
Chief Executive Officer

This graduation day is the culmination of many hours, days, and years of hard work and determination from you. It takes a very special kind of person to rise to all the challenges and overcome the obstacles of studying at the highest level. You have proved yourself to be worthy of the highest awards available in UK education. This is your success, so please enjoy every moment of today's celebration. Well done! One of our core values at Arden is to support people in reaching their full potential. We're passionate about making a positive difference in people's lives and I hope, as you sit here today, you feel we have made an impact on yours.

And let's not forget your family and friends who have supported you on your journey, some of whom may be here to celebrate with you today.

With a wealth of opportunity ahead of you, I'm confident that your qualification will help you reach your full potential in absolutely anything you want to do. You now join a select group of people who have the honour of becoming an alumnus of Arden University. You can stay connected with us and watch the further progress of the university through our alumni association. If there is anything the team at Arden University can do to help you further, then please do not hesitate to contact us. You will always be part of the Arden University family.

Chair's introduction

Marcelo Claure

Chair of the Board

Congratulations to all our graduates! Your journey at Arden reflects what makes this university special — determination, flexibility, and the belief that education can transform lives. Many of you balanced studies with work and family, proving that with resilience and purpose, anything is possible. I'm proud to celebrate your achievement and can't wait to see the impact you'll make in the world.

Marcelo Claure is a global entrepreneur and investor. He is a Partner and Co-Chairman of Brightstar Capital Partners, a multi-billion-dollar investment firm focused on deploying AI to transform businesses.

In September 2025, Brightstar acquired a 50% stake in Arden University, where Marcelo now serves as Chair of the Board. He's passionate about Arden University for its ability to transform student lives and harness AI to revolutionise education.

He also serves as CEO of Claure Group, a multi-billion-dollar firm deploying proprietary capital, Chairman of Bicycle Capital, Latin America's leading growth equity fund, Vice Chairman of SHEIN, and Co-Chair of Harvard Business

School's D³ AI Institute. Claure is also an active board member and the largest independent shareholder of T-Mobile.

A passionate football investor, Claure owns Club Bolívar (Bolivia) and co-owns Girona FC (Spain) and New York City FC (USA) with City Football Group.

Previously, he served as CEO of SoftBank Group International, overseeing a portfolio exceeding $450 billion in assets; led Sprint's turnaround as CEO and its merger with T-Mobile; and founded Brightstar, which grew into the world's largest wireless distribution and services company.

Deputy Chair's introduction

Professor Ann Tate CBE
Deputy Chair of the Board

You have now joined a growing community of Arden University alumni, a community which I hope you will take great pride in being a part of.

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Arden University I would like to welcome you all – graduands, staff, and guests – to today's graduation ceremony, and congratulate all our graduands on their success.

A graduation ceremony is a rite of passage which marks a significant milestone in your life. It celebrates the hard work and dedication you have invested in your programme of study and allows you to feel great pride in your achievements. I hope that you will enjoy your day and remember it for many years to come. You have now joined a growing community of Arden University alumni, a community which I hope you will take great pride in being a part of. I am proud to be associated with Arden University and the values it stands for.

We believe there is no single right path to a university education. Rather, there are many available routes for access, whatever your background or circumstances may be. Where you finish is much more important than where you start, and Arden University is here to support you on your journey.

I hope that today marks the beginning of a new phase in your life and career, and I look forward to hearing about all your successes in the future. But for now, my warmest congratulations to you all.

About Arden University

At Arden, we passionately believe that everyone, everywhere has an equal right to education. We strive to remove the barriers created by location, cost, time, and other life commitments, to give ambitious people like you the opportunity to access the life-changing rewards of a university degree.

Since the granting of our university status in 2015, we've worked hard to do things differently. We recognise that your degree needs to fully prepare you for current and future workplace developments and the expectations of employers, to create a better world for everyone.

With campuses across the UK and Germany, as well as our provision of online degree courses studied by students across five continents, many of whom have travelled to join us here today, we've made it possible for people from all backgrounds to take control of their futures.

As active champions of equality, diversity, and inclusion, we believe that higher education is a force for both social and economic change. We are proud that you have chosen Arden University to be a part of your life journey.

Alumni Reception

Graduates and guests are invited to attend a drinks reception in the Lecture Hall and Library on the first floor to celebrate your achievements. The Alumni Reception won't open until the ceremony has ended and will last for approximately 1 hour. Please ensure all hired graduation gowns and hoods are returned to the drop off area in the corner of the Lecture Hall and Library by the end of the Alumni reception.

Refreshments – Please do not eat or drink during the ceremony and please take all litter with you.

Photography and mobile telephones – Please do not move from your seats to take photographs or video recordings during the ceremony. Please also ensure that your mobile telephones are switched to silent for the duration of the ceremony.

Applause – You are invited to applaud the presentation of the graduates to recognise their hard work and achievement and to celebrate their success. Please applaud only after the student's names are called so that each student's name can be heard clearly when announced.

Health and Safety – In the event of an emergency, please remain seated until directed otherwise.

About Central Hall Westminster

The wonderful location in which we are joining each other for today's graduation ceremony is Central Hall Westminster, a Grade II listed building which we hope you'll agree is a fitting location to celebrate your academic achievements.

Originally opened in 1912 as a space for worship, concerts, and public and private events, Central Hall Westminster is one of the capital's most culturally significant venues. Over the years it has welcomed many noteworthy public figures through its doors, including Martin Luther King, Mahatma Gandhi, and King Charles III, and was also the location of the Inaugural Meeting of the United Nations in 1946.

The Great Hall's breathtaking grand organ, which you'll see located behind the stage as you await your graduation moment, features 4,731 pipes; and don't forget to look up – the spectacular self-supporting domed roof above you is the largest of its type in Europe.

We hope that attending your graduation day in such a beautiful setting will create memories that last a lifetime.

Our Academic procession

Your graduation is a celebration of your hard work and achievement and we all look forward to celebrating with you at the Alumni reception

Stephanie Molyneaux

Stephanie Molyneaux is an accomplished hospitality professional and Apprenticeships Manager at WSH Ltd, a family of independent hospitality brands. With extensive experience in operational management, people leadership, and talent development, she has built a respected career dedicated to developing future talent and creating opportunities within the hospitality sector.

Two transformative personal experiences have helped shape Stephanie's leadership philosophy. In 2007, she sailed across the Atlantic Ocean aboard a 50-foot yacht with two people she had never previously met. Over five months at sea, she developed the confidence, resilience, adaptability, and teamwork skills required to navigate and helm the yacht solo. She later completed a challenging fundraising expedition through The Andes and the Amazon, enduring extreme conditions and high altitudes while supporting a hospitality-focused charity. These experiences reinforced her belief in perseverance, encouragement, and the ability of individuals to exceed their own expectations.

Stephanie is widely recognised for her contribution to apprenticeship development and skills progression. As the driving force behind WSH's Chartered Manager Degree Apprenticeship (CMDA) programme, launched in 2022, she has helped transform apprenticeship delivery across the organisation. Under her leadership, the programme has embedded mentoring, personalised development planning, and flexible learning approaches, supporting more than 100 apprentices and achieving a retention rate of 95%.

Her innovative approach was recently recognised when the WSH CMDA programme received the Apprenticeship Programme of the Year Award at the Learning Performance Institute Awards. Passionate about social mobility, inclusive career pathways, and developing future leaders, Stephanie continues to champion meaningful opportunities within hospitality while inspiring others to realise their full potential.

Awards of Advance HE Fellowships

We are delighted to announce that the following Arden University staff members have been awarded an Advance HE Fellowship in 2025/2026. Staff receiving a fellowship have been found to have clearly demonstrated their commitment to high quality teaching and learning, to the values of inclusivity scholarship, and participation that underpin their practice, and to giving their students an exceptional experience through their teaching and leadership.

Arden University has successfully supported colleagues to gain Advance HE professional recognition for two categories of Fellowship during 2025/2026 and these colleagues have gained their awards either through direct application to Advance HE or by having successfully completed Arden University's newly-accredited fellowship scheme, Advancing with Arden.

The Arden Graduate Grove

Arden University has committed to plant a tree for each of our graduates. In this endeavour we work closely with our chosen partner Ecologi, a passionate community of over 19,000 SMEs and 40,000 members that empowers businesses to accelerate global action on climate and nature.

Since launching the Graduate Grove in 2021, Arden University has planted thousands of trees on behalf of our graduates.

When will your tree be planted?

We aim to have each tree planted within a year of graduation.

We believe that education should be long-lasting, providing huge benefits for our students and their families long after they graduate. As a result, we hope that, just like the trees in our Graduate Grove, the knowledge and skills you have gained through your education with us continue to grow long after you have completed your studies.

You can learn more about Ecologi and their action on climate change by visiting ecologi.com

In partnership with

Taking Arden with you after graduation

We asked some of our students and alumni to reflect on their time at Arden University and tell us about their visions for the future.

| Carol-Ann

Arden University alumni,
BA (Hons) Business Management (Tourism)

I always wanted to get a degree. It was more of a purpose and an achievement, rather than needing a degree to get a job. When I was searching for a university, I knew it had to be online as I didn't want to give up my work or my travelling.

Studying with Arden University gives you the flexibility to do whatever you want in your personal life, whilst giving you an opportunity for a better education and to get a degree in the end. I could grow with other students who made the same decision as I did – we were all in the same boat with the same mindset.

I work in marketing in Dubai, and we work long days, mostly 10-and-a-half-hour days. During the week, I would also have physio, Pilates, and try to fit in a social life too! So, I had to schedule two hours, either during the week or the weekend, for my studying.

| Tevahn

Arden University alumni,
BSc (Hons) Accounting and Finance

Arden offers so many different types of ways of learning that allow you to still have your life, still go on and pursue other things, but also acquire a degree, and that's what it has allowed me to do.

Coming from the Caribbean, I fell in love with football. I always wanted to achieve something. I always felt that if I worked hard or if I applied myself, then I could be great. The work I've done for professional football has put me in a position to transfer my skills. It's allowed me to organise, stay dedicated, and push on and get a degree.

Coming to Arden as a mature student helped me grow as a person and a business owner. The main thing is focus - without focus, without true focus, you can't do anything. I see my future as having a large international voice and trying to connect with some of the biggest brands around the world.

Marium

Arden University alumni,
LLM in Professional Legal Practice

As a single mother of three, there's never a perfect schedule when it comes to studying. When you're running a house, and you're raising kids and studying at the same time, you're going to have a lot of emotions of guilt and self-doubt.

Arden gave me the flexibility of studying online and being able to do it in my own time. I was able to visualise the distant dream of becoming a solicitor, and that is where I see myself in the years to come. The support from Arden was amazing. I don't think I could have studied law otherwise. My studying had to fit around my family and me.

If I can do this, dropping them off at school, going to work, coming back, picking them up, doing dinner, but then kind of spending time with them, but then juggling my studies, maybe doing it at 9, 10, 11 pm. There were times when I was doing it at 2 am! Arden gave me the flexibility to be able to study in my own time, when and where I can.

I was proud to show my kids that you can accomplish things later in life and through a non-traditional route of getting an education when you are younger. My kids also got to see a stronger version of me, and that is part of my drive. My eldest has told me that I am their role model, and they would like to study law as well. It's never too late to learn.

Jenna

Arden University alumni,
BSc (Hons) Forensic and Criminal Investigation

When I was five, I wanted to be a police officer. As I got older, my interest in criminology increased. I wasn't very academic when I was younger. Choosing to study with Arden was a lifelong chance for me to choose a career that I wanted to do, rather than something that I fell into.

I have never been a very competent person. I'm quite a loud person, but I was also quite reserved in certain areas, and confidence with academics was never my thing. I always used to think I couldn't think of anything worse than learning!

When I was searching for a university, I found Arden and their distance learning degree screamed out at me - you can do this at home, whilst looking after your children, whilst looking after your home. And I've never looked back since.

There's everything there that you need to get yourself from A to B. You've just got to want it. My husband is so proud of me. He says to me quite a lot, you know, your confidence is massive. By having the structure that I have with the university, the support I had was fantastic. My confidence has grown each time I do something new at Arden. Studying has given me the extra boost to contact people directly on LinkedIn – asking if they have any roles or an opportunity to volunteer. If you don't ask, you don't get!

The history of the ceremonial mace

The tradition of the mace derives from medieval times in England when the mace was held by a bodyguard for dignitaries at ceremonial functions.

As an ancient symbol of authority, it reminds us that universities are custodians of both enduring traditions in learning and of the power they bestow upon those who come to learn.

The mace has become a symbol of authority and character of the institution and is carried at the head of the robed academic procession, followed by academic staff from the schools and faculties whose students are to be presented.

About the Arden University mace

Our beautiful mace was designed by Arden University Graphic Design student Jemma Lee Loppnow and crafted by the world-famous silversmiths Thomas Fattorini Ltd in Birmingham, England.

The creative and modern design represents a modern university and is symbolic of Arden University's proud history and values.

The symbolic Arden 'A' is held by supporting hands and the bird holding the scroll in its beak represents offering education to all. The globe at the bottom of the staff represents opportunities for a higher education around the world.

Please scan the QR code to watch an interview with Jemma and the making of the mace.

About our mace bearers

Basra
Khan

30th June - 10am Ceremony

Basra Khan is a Mental Health and Wellbeing Adviser. She has worked at Arden University since April 2022 and is passionate about removing barriers to education and ensuring student wellbeing can be supported throughout their time in Arden.

In her role as a wellbeing adviser, Basra has supported students in the UK, Distance Learning, Berlin and those completing an Apprenticeship remotely throughout her journey so far.

Basra is also currently studying an Apprenticeship with Arden to support ongoing development in her career. Outside of work, Basra enjoys reformer Pilates, music and anime.

"Congratulations to you all attending your graduation. I am honoured to be joining you as a mace bearer for your day."

"I hope that your university experience has allowed you to grow as an individual and the next stages of your journey allow you to flourish even more!"

Shunaza
Khan

30th June - 1.45pm Ceremony

Shunaza Khan is a highly dynamic and enthusiastic lecturer at Arden University with over 15 years of combined academic and industry experience. She is recognised for her strong leadership skills, impressive work ethic, and commitment to creating a challenging yet supportive learning environment that enables students to thrive.

Passionate about inspiring young adults to achieve beyond their perceived capabilities, Shunaza brings extensive communication skills alongside a friendly, confident, and approachable personality. Her ability to motivate and support students throughout their academic journey reflects her dedication to both personal and professional development.

In addition to her teaching expertise, Shunaza demonstrates exceptional management and team leadership skills, consistently fostering collaboration and success within academic settings. She considers it a true honour to support students during significant milestones such as graduation ceremonies, proudly representing the University and celebrating the achievements of its graduates.

"To all students graduating today, this milestone is a testament to your hard work and determination."

"As a Mace Bearer, I take great pride in upholding tradition and representing the institution. No matter where you started, your journey matters. Keep striving, keep believing, and remember this is only the beginning of even greater accomplishments ahead."

Dr Dami
Folayan

30th June - 5.30pm Ceremony

Dr Dami Folayan is poet-researcher and inclusion advocate who is new to Arden, having joined us in February 2026. Dami recently completed her PhD in Education at the University of Cambridge and joined Arden as a Lecturer in Equity Diversity and Inclusion after concluding her role at the University of Leeds, where she was a Senior Research Fellow, working on the, Office for Students and Research England funded, Generation Delta project.

Dami is a wife and mother, and is excited about furthering Arden's inclusive practices surrounding parenting and motherhood. Dami is extremely passionate about higher education.

Her commitment to inclusivity is driven by her belief that higher education institutions are microcosms of society, which reflect and project social change.

"Congratulations! Graduations are what dreams are made of. They are the culmination of years of work and sometimes decades of hope. Today, many of your dreams have come true, but this day is also the beginning of new hopes and dreams."

"I am grateful that I get to share in the celebration of your achievements today, and realise a dream of my own by being your mace bearer!"

Marjorie Trusty-Samuels

1st July - 10am Ceremony

Marjorie Trusty-Samuels is an Academic Admissions Tutor and lecturer at Arden University, and has worked at Arden since October 2025.

She supports prospective students as they step into higher education - often at life-changing moments in their journey.

With over 30 years in education across secondary and higher education, she has been privileged to work closely with students in teaching, pastoral, and careers roles.

Supporting individuals to grow in confidence and realise their potential remains at the heart of everything she does.

"Being a mace bearer at this year's graduation is a truly special honour."

"To witness and celebrate the achievements of our graduates - many of whom have overcome significant challenges - is both humbling and inspiring, and a reminder of why I chose this profession."

Stacey
Hayes Allen

1st July - 2pm Ceremony

Stacey Hayes Allen is Director of Employer Engagement at Arden University and a senior leader with extensive expertise across higher education and professional services. She works at the intersection of education, industry, and skills, forging partnerships that create meaningful opportunities for learners, employers, and communities.

With over 16 years' experience in employer engagement and workforce development, Stacey has collaborated with major corporates and innovative SMEs across sectors including hospitality, healthcare, business and professional services, STEM, retail, and the public sector.

Through award-winning partnership strategies and employer-led education models, Stacey is deeply committed to widening access to higher education, advancing social mobility, and ensuring education delivers lasting social and economic impact.

"I am pleased to be sharing your graduation day with you. Your hard work and sacrifices have lead you to this stage. Hold your head high and celebrate your fantastic achievements.

Congratulations to you all."
